DECLAN GANLEY – NEW LEADERSHIP FOR IRELAND NORTH WEST

DECLAN GANLEY is running in Ireland North West for the European Parliament Elections. He needs your vote on June 5th. Declan is the only candidate in this constituency with a proven record of success in business and job creation. Declan has clear ideas for economic recovery in Ireland. He wants to work for you. If you vote No 1 for him on June 5th, he will fight your corner and he will not let you down.

WHY I AM VOTING FOR DECLAN GANLEY

YOUNG FAMILY: Michelle and children, Oranmore

The recession is hitting us hard. Our house is worth about half of what we paid for it, and we are really worried about keeping up our mortgage repayments. Declan at least explained to me why that's happening, and his ideas on how to solve it. I know there's no quick way out of this crisis, but at least he knows how to get jobs created and get business going again. I'm voting for him.

BUSINESS OWNER: Andy, Monaghan

I own a business and I'm up against it with the downturn. The people who work for me all have mortgages and young families. I'm really worried about having to let them go. I'd feel terrible. If I could just get a break on the overheads, it would make it easier to survive the recession. Declan's ideas about incentives for employers would help me keep my current staff. I trust his judgement. I'll vote for him.

TRADESMAN: Kieran, Tuam

People say we had it good during the Celtic Tiger years but work has really dried up now and I'm worried about the future. As far as I can see, Declan Ganley is the only man to steer us in the right direction and get us out of this mess. He'll get my No. 1 vote anyway.

FISHERMAN: Kevin, Killybegs

My crew and I now have to travel to the Western Sahara just to earn a living when Ireland has some of the richest seas in the world. We are being driven thousands of miles away from home by EU regulations that nobody voted for and Declan is the only politician with the courage to stand up and say what is wrong. Fishermen need a fighter and Declan will push the boat out for us. He'll get my vote.

STUDENT: Eva, Westport

You look around at politicians and say to yourself, what's the point voting? They all promise the earth but won't do anything about it, and they argue amongst themselves and get nothing done. We need someone with real vision for job creation in Ireland and who knows that education has to be accessible to all. I heard Declan speak – and he talks sense. I'm voting for him on June 5th.

PENSIONER: Irene, Sligo

"This Government tried to take away my medical card. I've worked all my life and the one bit of security I had was being taken away. Our politicians have their priorities all wrong. We need someone with fresh ideas and someone who will get their priorities right. For me, that's Declan Ganley. He'll get my number 1.

CANCER PATIENT: Noreen, Castlebar

I'm a breast cancer survivor. I'm one of many thousands. They got it early but it might come back at any time. I'm terrified that the local cancer services are being compromised. I know our other politicians talk about this but the only man I can see who will actually stand up for us is Declan Ganley. He took them all on last year and won, and I want him on my side. That's why when I vote in June, I'll be voting for him.

FARMER: James, Longford

"People keep telling me how great Europe is for Farmers, but I have more forms to fill in every year, and the new live export regulations are going to hurt me a lot. I used to work with barbed wire, and now I work with red tape! When Mandelson was trying to sell us down the river, none of our MEPs stood up to him – I know Declan Ganley wouldn't think twice about telling him where to go, so he's the one I'll be voting for."

TURFCUTTER: Paddy, Collinstown

I grew up cutting turf on this bog. So did my father and his father before him. Now the EU is telling us to get off the bog. It's just plain wrong. Declan knows that we're best placed to protect the boglands and he respects this tradition. I'm voting No 1 for Declan Ganley.

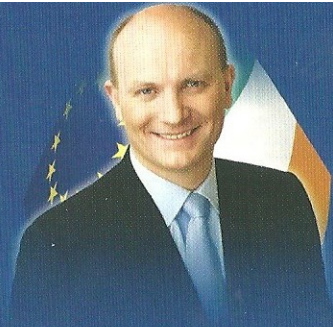

TAXI DRIVER: Martin, Ennis

I want the taxi service to work for my passengers but I want it to work for me too. I'm working 13 hours a day to earn €50 and politicians are ignoring me. Declan is the only candidate who recognises the need for a balance between my right to earn a living and the right of passengers to a good and safe service. I'll be voting for him.

These are just some of the real concerns of ordinary people. Your family has its own concerns, and none of the other political parties have a clear plan on how to address them. We need an MEP with the character and ability to stand up and fight for the people of Ireland North West. Declan's record of job creation, and his proven ability to fight for the people of Ireland North West make him the best candidate to represent us in Europe for the next five years. Vote Declan Ganley No1 on June 5th.
